First Aid

Delivery:
On Campus

Training in South Australia is delivered with Commonwealth and South Australian Government funding through The Department of Further Education, Employment Science and Technology.

The information given is intended as a guide. Changes may have occurred since printing. Please check with your nearest MADEC College for further information.

TOID 3957

Nationally Accredited Training

Provide First Aid (Level II)  HLTAID003
Students will gain the skills and knowledge required to provide first aid response, life support, management of injuries, the incident and other first aiders until the arrival of medical or other assistance.

What will you learn?

First aid procedures for
Bleeding control, care of unconscious patient, infection control as it relates to standard precautions, airway management, chest pain, casualty with no signs of life, shock, respiratory distress, asthma, severe allergic reaction, chain of survival, how to access emergency response support services/personnel.

Delivery and duration
This course is conducted over two days as a fully practical workshop, or can be delivered as a blended course involving one day classroom and home study. Assessment involves written questions, oral questioning and practical simulation.

Entry requirements
There are no pre-requisites or co-requisites for this competency unit.

This unit incorporates the contents of units:

HLTAID001 Provide CPR
HLTAID002 Provide basic emergency life support

To enrol and learn more contact MADEC
T: 1300 436 332 E: education@madec.edu.au W: www.madec.edu.au